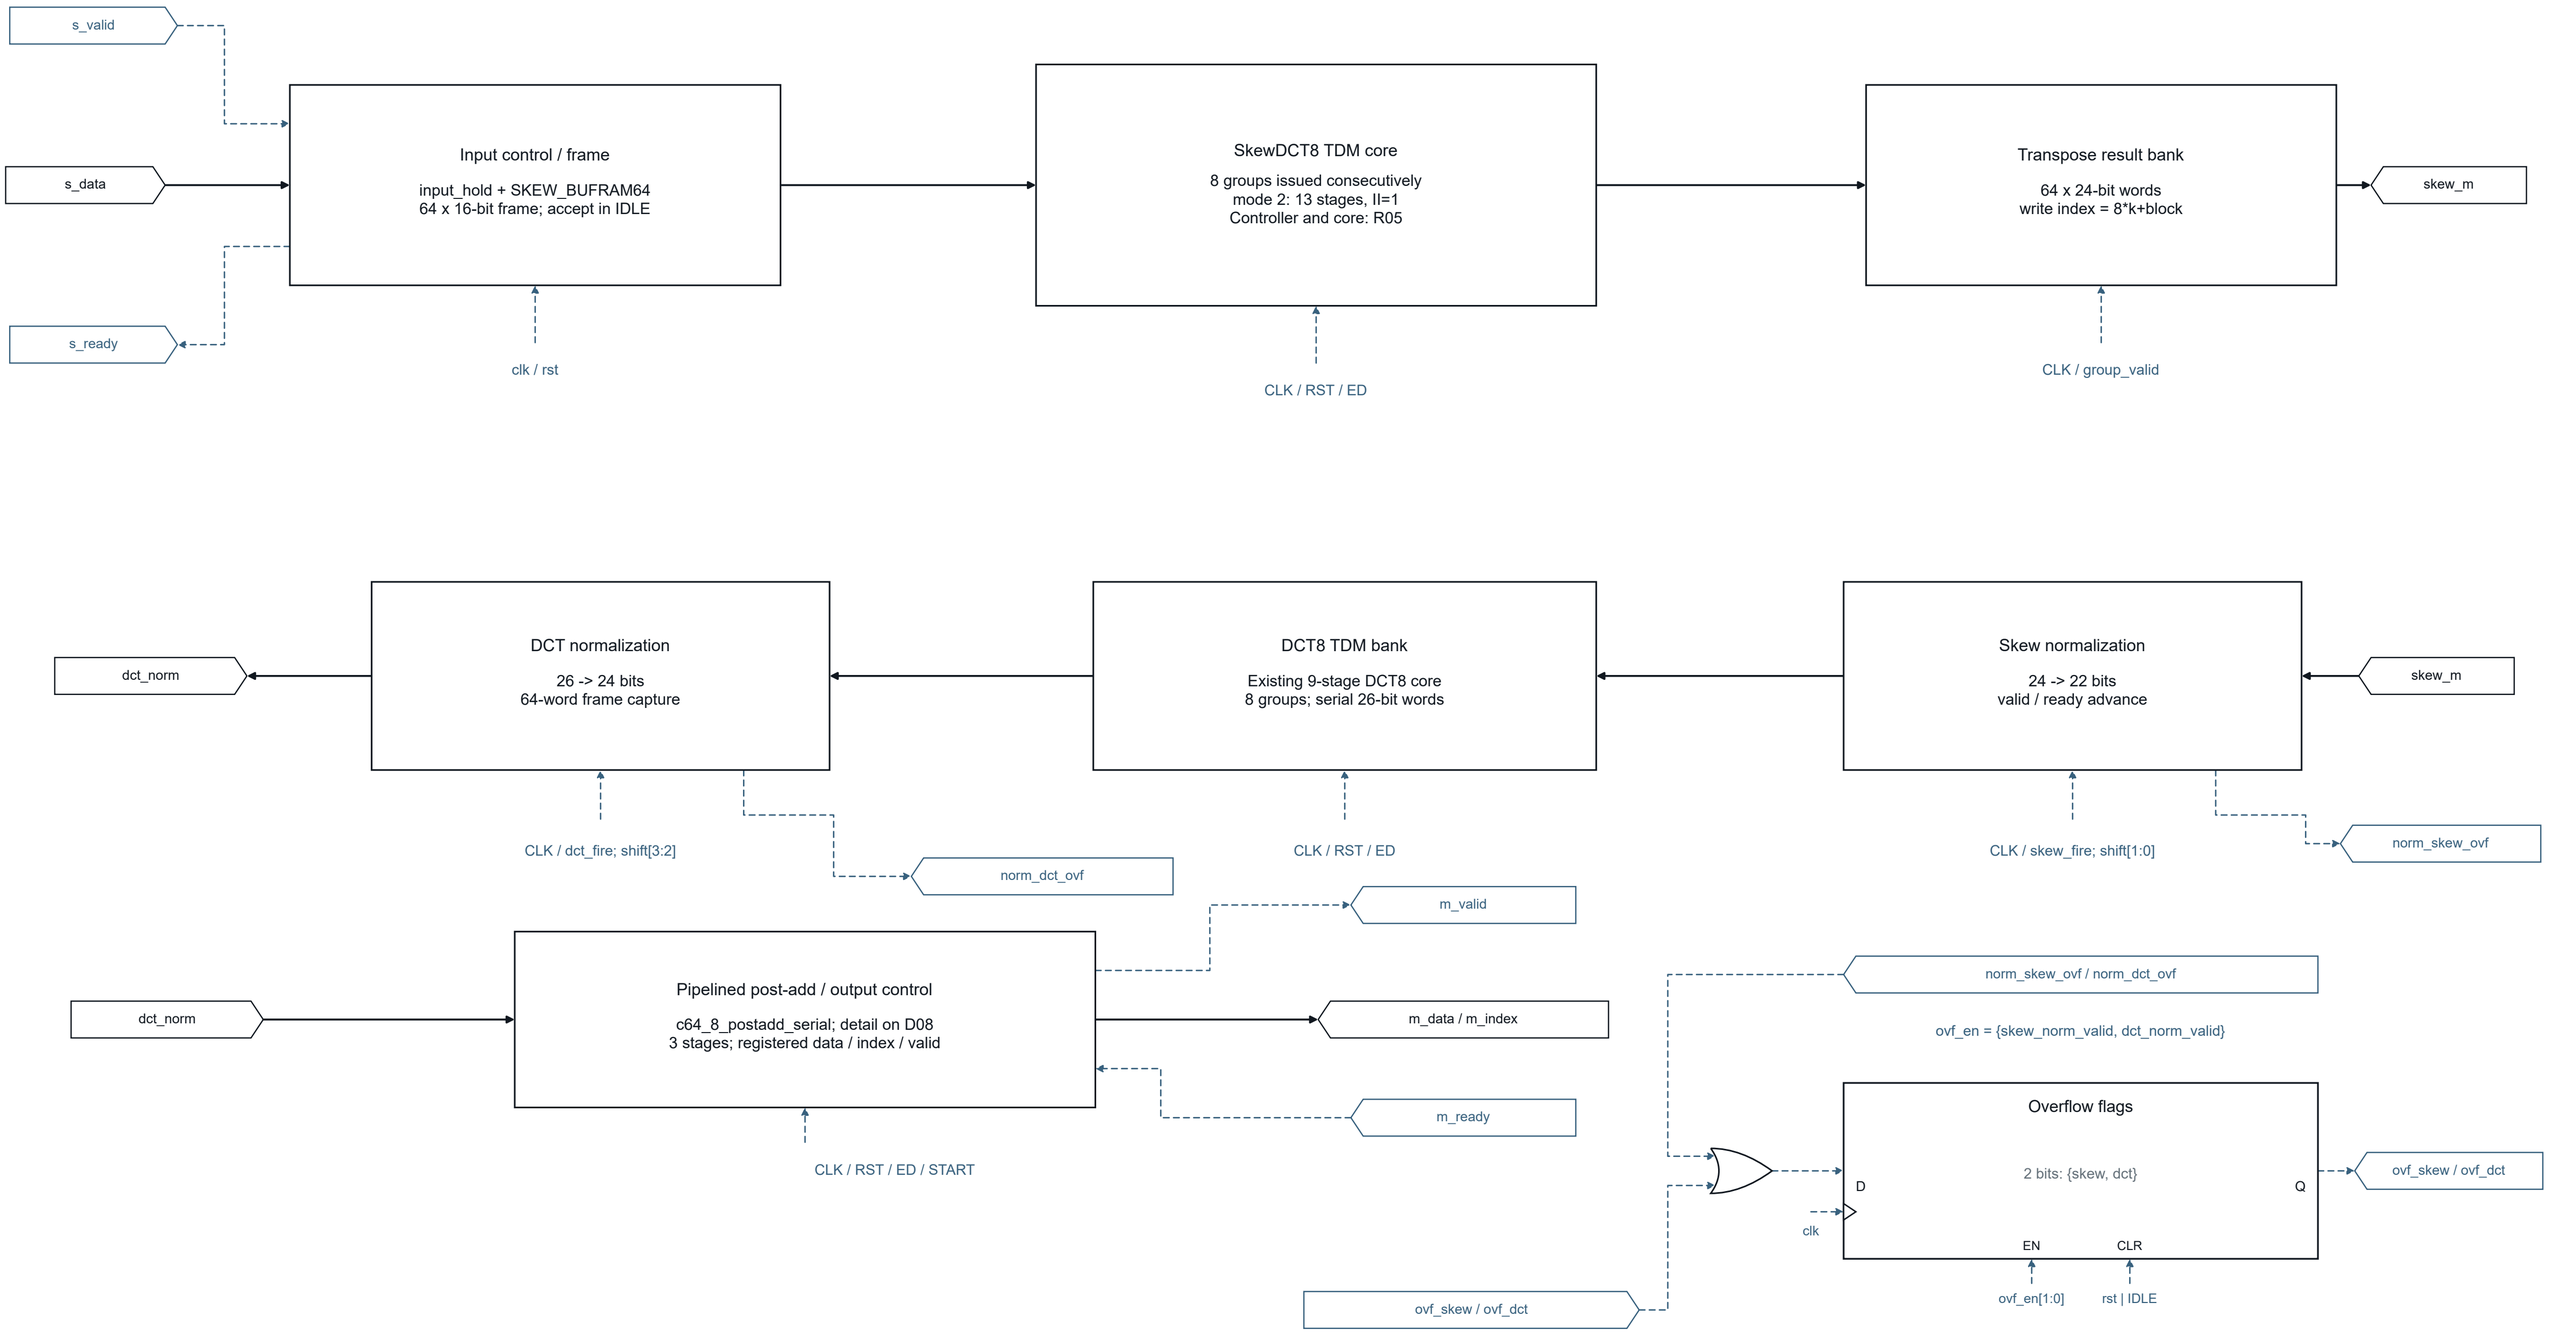
DCT64 integration - recursive Skew bank and existing downstream stages

C64 output processing now has registered selection, product and post-add stages. Input/output control and overflow registers retain their existing behavior.



No-stall DCT64 first/last output: 172/235 -> 175/238 cycles. C64 completes only after its final registered result is accepted.